All Welcome

KURASHIKI

Kurashiki warmly welcomes all who visit. Within its historic streets and abundant natural surroundings, there is something for every kind of traveler. The city offers delicious cuisine made with fresh vegetables and fruits cultivated in the fertile soil around the SETOUCHI. Visitors can also enjoy the city’s rich culture and industries, with designated spaces available for maintaining religious practices during their travels. “All Welcome” here in Kurashiki.

Muslim Friendly

1 Kurashikikan
Constructed in 1917 in the Bikan Historical Area, this Western-style building used to be the Kurashiki Town Hall. Now registered as a National Tangible Cultural Property, this iconic landmark is currently used as a tourist information center and free rest area. On the second floor, there is space for prayer.

2 Turkish Gallery & Cafe GelGel
A Turkish specialty shop located along the picturesque streets of the Bikan Historical Area. Opened in 2009, the store is a treasure trove of vibrant Turkish carpets, lamps, ceramics, etc., all carefully selected by the Muslim owner and beautifully displayed to captivate visitors.

3 Masjid Indonesia Kurashiki
A mosque located in the Mizushima residential district of Kurashiki City. The three-story building has a prayer space on the third floor.

At the Kurashiki Tourist Information Center, Kurashiki original prayer mats made from local materials like denim and hanagoza rushes, are available for loan. Please inquire at the 1st-floor counter.

4 TAKAHASHIGAWA TRAVEL
TAKAHASHIGAWA TRAVEL is a Kurashiki-based travel agency specializing in tours in the Takahashi River basin area. Their tours are designed to accommodate all different kinds of travel preferences.

Indigo Dyeing Experience
Experience indigo dyeing in Kojima, the birthplace of Japanese jeans. Learn traditional dyeing techniques while taking in the stunning view of the SETOUCHI and Washuzan Hill.

Hanagoza Printing Experience
Kurashiki is said to be the birthplace of hanagoza made out of common rush grass. Create a personalized design on a placemat or prayer mat and take home a one-of-a-kind souvenir from Kurashiki.

1 カフェ ナチュラル Café NATURE

A health-conscious, eco-friendly organic vegan cafe. The fare at Cafe Nature is exclusively made from carefully selected plant-based ingredients and is free from artificial seasonings and flavorings. They are certified as an "Okayama Organic Pesticide-Free Produce" establishment which adheres to stricter standards than national regulations. They recommend their richly flavored keema curry, made with an original blend of aromatic spices.

2 廣榮堂 倉敷雄鶏店 Koeido Kurashiki Yukei Store

Koeido specializes in Kibi Dango, a signature souvenir from Okayama prefecture. The Kurashiki store is situated at the entrance to the Bikan Historical Area—known for its white-walled streets, rickshaws, and boats crossing the Kurashiki River. The building repurposed with traditional renovation techniques is a Meiji-era (1868-1912) townhouse embodying the theme "Museum of Time" blending seamlessly into the picturesque surroundings. In recent years, the soft and chewy texture of Kibi Dango has become immensely popular with international visitors. Vegan-friendly and Halal-certified options are also available, ensuring everyone can enjoy this Okayama tradition.
